

SUMMER SCHOOL IN KIEV

Bridge Education Abroad Institute (BEAI) is organizing summer school in Kiev, Ukraine during the dates July 22nd – August 02nd, 2013. This program will include lectures from experienced professors and guest speakers from all over the globe, including the United States of America. A few of our professors include:

- Professor Dr. Martin Gassebner – Author and professor at ETH Zurich
- Professor Dr. Matteo Fumagalli- Professor at Central European University
 - PHD from University of Edinburgh
- Professor Dr. Christianna Leahy- Professor at Mcdaniel College in the USA
 - PHD from Georgetown University
 - Guest Speaker at Johnson Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies
- Professor Dr. Andreas Umland-
 - PHD from University of Cambridge
 - MPhil at Oxford University
 - Masters at Standord University

The students will enrich their knowledge of Ukraine's history, international politics, and economics while also enjoying travel to famous and historic places. We also encourage students to get to know one another and share cultural values through planned social events (a tour of parliament, field trips to Lviv, capital tours of Kviv, and Rus park).

For more information about our program, please visit www.beainstitute.org or contact the Institute via info@beainstitute.org.

